

Elle Decor, my go-to source for stunning, inspirational interiors, recently shared these exclusive images with us from its April issue, which hits news stands in a week. The exclusive photos feature New York City/Beirut artist Nabil Nahas's apartment, which is filled with a mix of rare finds. With Indian inlays, 1940s furniture, and, as you might expect, an impressive collection of wall art and sculpture, this home is a definite must see. Take a tour, and then pick up the new copy of Elle Decor next week for even more decorating inspiration.
